Module 1: Evaluation

Student Copy

22 questions · 50 points

Name: _____ Date: _____

© 2026 Brightpoint Community College. Prepared by Katherine Tupac-Yupanqui. Except where otherwise noted, original course content is licensed under CC BY 4.0 (https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/).

Part A: True or False

1. True or False — 1 point

AI stands for Automated Interface.

[ ] A. True

[ ] B. False

2. True or False — 1 point

AI is used to predict what ads you see online.

[ ] A. True

[ ] B. False

3. True or False — 1 point

All AI systems are designed to think and feel like humans.

[ ] A. True

[ ] B. False

4. True or False — 1 point

AI can help spot fake news using language analysis.

[ ] A. True

[ ] B. False

5. True or False 1 point

A robot must have AI to function.

[ ] A. True

[ ] B. False

6. True or False 1 point

AI always makes fair decisions because it's based on data.

[ ] A. True

[ ] B. False

Part B: Multiple Choice

7. Multiple Choice 1 point

Which of the following is a correct definition of AI?

[ ] A. A tool used only in factories

[ ] B. A robot with human emotions

[ ] C. A program that plays video games

[ ] D. A machine that can perform tasks requiring human intelligence

8. Multiple Choice 1 point

Which of these everyday tools uses AI?

[ ] A. GPS Navigation

[ ] B. Hair dryer

[ ] C. Electric toothbrush

[ ] D. Toaster

9. Multiple Choice 1 point

Which field has seen AI used to automate legal document review?

[ ] A. Painting

[ ] B. Culinary arts

[ ] C. Plumbing

[ ] D. Law

© 2026 Katherine Tupac-Yupanqui, Brightpoint Community College · CC BY 4.0

10. Multiple Choice 1 point

Pop culture AI is often portrayed as:

[ ] A. Focused only on industrial work

[ ] B. Unreliable and boring

[ ] C. Highly emotional and human-like

[ ] D. Always invisible

11. Multiple Choice 1 point

Which of the following is a potential ethical issue with AI?

[ ] A. Too much noise

[ ] B. Overheating machines

[ ] C. High electricity bills

[ ] D. Data bias and discrimination

12. Multiple Choice 1 point

Which of these tasks is currently most challenging for AI to do well?

[ ] A. Detect objects in images

[ ] B. Play chess

[ ] C. Drive cars

[ ] D. Create emotional poetry

Part C: Applied Scenarios

13. Essay 3 points

Scenario: You're applying for a job online. The company uses an AI system to filter applications. What is one potential risk of using AI in this context?

© 2026 Katherine Tupac-Yupanqui, Brightpoint Community College · CC BY 4.0

14. Essay 3 points

Scenario: A music streaming app suggests songs similar to what you've liked in the past. Which type of AI technique is being used and Why?

[ ] A. Vision recognition

[ ] B. Rule-based automation

[ ] C. Recommendation algorithms

[ ] D. Manual selection

15. Essay 3 points

Scenario: A judge uses AI to help determine bail recommendations. What ethical concern could arise?

16. Essay 3 points

Scenario: A journalism platform uses AI to suggest headlines. What is a benefit of this AI use?

17. Multiple Choice 1 point

Scenario: A music streaming app suggests songs similar to what you've liked in the past. Which type of AI technique is being used?

[ ] A. Recommendation algorithms

[ ] B. Vision recognition

[ ] C. Rule-based automation

[ ] D. Manual selection

© 2026 Katherine Tupac-Yupanqui, Brightpoint Community College · CC BY 4.0

Part D: Short Response

18. Essay 5 points

In your own words, define Artificial Intelligence (AI).

19. Essay 5 points

Describe one way AI helps in non-STEM fields (like the arts, journalism, or law).

20. Essay 5 points

What is one way pop culture misrepresents AI compared to how it works in real life?

21. Essay 5 points

Name one ethical issue related to AI and explain it briefly.

© 2026 Katherine Tupac-Yupanqui, Brightpoint Community College · CC BY 4.0

22. Essay 5 points

What is one way AI already impacts your daily life, even if you don’t always notice it?

© 2026 Katherine Tupac-Yupanqui, Brightpoint Community College · CC BY 4.0